

LOOKING FOR AN OPPORTUNITY TO ENGAGE YOUR FAMILY IN AN ACTIVITY SERVING THE LARGER COMMUNITY?

This past fall, Bolton Street Synagogue, located on Cold Spring Lane, started a monthly casserole program to help provide food to Our Daily Bread's hot meal program. Our Daily Bread, located near downtown, currently serves more than a quarter-million meals to the hungry of Baltimore City each year. The synagogue would like to invite members of the greater Roland Park community to join with them in addressing hunger and homelessness in our city. Participants in the casserole program make a once-a-month casserole in their homes by choosing one of two recipes and delivering the homemade and frozen casseroles to the synagogue the fourth Sunday of each month in the morning. Alternative arrangements for delivery can be made as well.

If you are interested in participating (and no you don't have to do it every month), please contact Claudia Diamond at ClaudiaADiamond@gmail.com or (410)662-4734. This is a great activity for kids!
