

The Olmsted Legacy

AMERICA'S URBAN PARKS

Film Premiere, Remarks & Reception

Sunday, September 26 from 2 to 5 PM

REGINALD F. LEWIS MUSEUM

of Maryland African American History and Culture
830 East Pratt Street, Baltimore

Free, but RSVP required. Please RSVP to Janet Felsten at 410-235-0838 or olmstedrsvp@baltogreenmap.org.
This program is made possible by the generous support of The Speedwell Foundation.

Please join us for the screening of The Olmsted Legacy, a one hour documentary that examines the formation of America's first great city parks in the late 19th century through the enigmatic eyes of Frederick Law Olmsted, the visionary urban planner and landscape architect. Documentary Director Rebecca Messner will answer questions. Park Advocate Sandy Sparks will briefly relate Baltimore's extensive Olmsted legacy and its relevance to Druid Hill Park.

You will also have the great opportunity to view these museum exhibits—

Druid Hill Park: A Community's Pride (through December 5)

Beyond Swastika and Jim Crow: Jewish Refugee Scholars at Black Colleges (last day)
