Settle the dispute by buying land

July 6, 2008

If the land dispute in Roland Park is truly like a volcano erupting, then the members of the Roland Park Civic League should unite to see that the lava doesn't destroy that lovely 17-acre green patch that area residents seem to consider their very own, even though they acknowledge that the Baltimore Country Club actually owns the property.

But as complex as this situation may seem, there is a very, very simple solution: The Roland Park Civic League could buy the property.

It could then, as the owner of the property, do as it pleases with the land.

Would that all problems could be solved so easily.

David R. Watson
