1. Fund-raising Chili Cookoff Sold Out!

The much anticipated firehouse fund-raising chili cookoff has sold out. All 180 tickets are gone and the firehouse cannot accommodate any more people. A heartfelt thanks to all who bought tickets.

If you do not have a ticket, please be advised that we cannot take walk-ins. This is a seated event and the firehouse can only take the 180 ticket holders. Regrets.

Didn't get a ticket to the Home for Heroes cookoff? Host a chili party of your own! Invite some friends, serve a couple of different chili recipes and decide which is best. We'll announce your winning chili chef along with those from the cookoff in the summer issue of the Roland Park News (send the name of the chef and the winning chili to newsletter@rolandpark.org)! You can even "put out the boot" to collect donations for the Home for Heroes Campaign.

Let's make February 28th a chili night in Roland Park!

2. Firehouse in the News.

WJZ Channel 13 ran a news story on Feb. 23, 2009 about Roland Park's willingness to step up to the plate by raising, to date, $14,000 for the RP firehouse, the oldest operational one in Baltimore. The spring 2009 goal is $30,000, which obviously will save the cash-strapped city government a like amount. The article and multimedia video are here: <http://wjz.com/seenon/old.fire.station.2.941808.html>.
