

Roland Park E-letter

Web Editor's E-letter

June 11, 2009

1. Celebrate Roland Park Continuation.

Celebrate Roland Park continues on Mondays in June with dinner at Petit Louis Bistro on Roland Avenue. Petit Louis will donate 25 percent of dinner sales on Mondays during the month of June to the "Home For Heroes" campaign to benefit the Roland Park firehouse. Please consider gathering a group of friends or family to enjoy a wonderful dinner at Petit Louis Bistro. Reservations recommended. 4800 Roland Avenue. 410-366-9393.

2. Wyndhurst Station Cookout.

There is a Customer Appreciation Cookout sponsored by Shenanigan's Toy Shop & Stony Run Home on Saturday, June 13, 4-6 p.m. The event is open to the community. They will offer hot dogs, burgers, veggie burgers and fixings. Festivities will include prizes, arts & crafts and face painting. The event will be held in the Wyndhurst Station courtyard, 318 Wyndhurst Avenue. 410-532-8384. In the event of rain, the cookout will be held on Sunday, June 14, 4-6 p.m.

3. More MovieFest.

After last Saturday's superb kickoff — with the John Waters' version of "Hairspray" (1988) — the Cross Keys Village MovieFest continues this coming Saturday, June 13, with Barry Levinson's "Avalon" (1990).

Movie fest is being produced by Extraordinary Events and is sponsored by the Cross Keys shops, restaurants and businesses: Bettina Collections, Carl's Salon, Chapin Davis, Chezelle, Coldwell Banker, Cross Keys Tennis Club, Donna's Café, Dresscode, Joanna Gray, Jones & Jones, La Terra, Pied Piper, Radisson Hotel, Ruth Shaw, The Store Ltd., and Village Square Café

June 13 — Avalon (8:35pm: feature presentation begins)
Written and directed by Barry Levinson

June 20 — The Accidental Tourist (8:40pm: presentation begins)
Based on the novel by Ann Tyler

June 27 — Cry Baby (8:45pm: feature presentation begins)
Directed by John Waters
